

Marc B. Viscuso

Of Counsel

214-796-7944

mviscuso@frierlevitt.com

Marc B. Viscuso, Esq., is of counsel for Frier Levitt's real estate department and has expertise in the area of real estate, financing and development, and business transactions and leasing. Marc focuses on assisting clients in the acquisition, disposition, financing and development of raw land, commercial, industrial, multi-family and retail developments. He also advises owners, borrowers and investors in workouts and restructuring of distressed real estate deals. Marc represents ownership groups in the acquisition and disposition of business assets, as well as the negotiation of entity documents such as limited partnership and limited liability company agreements. He also has extensive leasing experience representing both landlords and tenants in retail, office, telecommunication and commercial lease negotiations.

Marc is also actively engaged in civic and community activities, including:

- Past President, Board of Directors, The Montessori Academy, Arlington
- Former General Counsel, Presbyterian Housing Program, Dallas
- Dorsey Pen Pal for Underprivileged Children, Dallas
- Habitat for Humanity, Dallas
- Repeat Walker, Susan G. Komen 3Day, Dallas

Professional Affiliations

- New Jersey Bar Association
- Texas Bar Association
- Dallas Bar Association
- Texas Real Estate Council
- Dallas Real Property Section Treasurer

Awards & Recognition

- Judge Thomas Gibbs Gee Award for pro bono work with non-profit organizations

Education

Villanova University School of Law, J.D.

University of Virginia, B.S.

Admissions

- New Jersey
- Pennsylvania
- Texas

