Marc Mayer, Esq. has an extensive background in healthcare corporate compliance matters. Prior to joining the Firm, he served as Chief Compliance Officer at a New Jersey healthcare system for over a decade. There, he was responsible for developing and implementing comprehensive compliance programs for the system's hospital and its large community-based physician practice network. He was responsible for the organization's response to external audits from government and private payers and managed its internal coding and billing compliance audits and provider education. Additionally, he served as the healthcare system's HIPAA Privacy & Security Officer, performing internal cybersecurity and HIPAA breach risk assessments, developing and implementing risk remediation efforts accordingly.

Mr. Mayer also has significant experience interfacing with various state and federal regulatory agencies regarding licensing and regulatory matters, as well as coordinating and performing organizational internal investigations.

Prior to his work as Chief Compliance Officer, Mr. Mayer worked for two large academic medical systems in New York City. He also worked for the U.S. Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services as a Policy Analyst, providing input and research on proposed regulations impacting healthcare providers.
