Rebecca Falk is an Associate Attorney in Frier Levitt's Healthcare Transactional Department. She works on a broad range of healthcare transactional matters, drafting, reviewing, and negotiating complex corporate and commercial agreements, including purchase, management services, employment, and operating and shareholder agreements. She advises healthcare providers, physician practices, and management services organizations on business entity formation, physician compensation arrangements, and healthcare business structures.

Before joining Frier Levitt, Rebecca was an associate at Brach Eichler, LLC, where she focused on healthcare transactional and corporate matters, including acquisitions, buy-outs, restructurings, and practice formations. She began her career at Wolfe Pincavage, where she represented health systems in managed care negotiations and claim settlements with insurers.

Rebecca earned her J.D., cum laude, from the Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University, where she was Articles Editor of the Hofstra Labor & Employment Law Journal, a Research Fellow at the Gitenstein Institute for Health Law and Policy, and President of the Veterans Law Student Association. She earned a certificate in Clinical Bioethics and received the Gold Level Public Service Award. She holds a B.A. in Chemistry from Binghamton University.
